

THE SEVENTY WEEKS

Each week (Pentecost) in the count to seventy is shown under its equivalent Gregorian year. Sabbath and jubilee years begin in the Gregorian year shown and end in the following year. Jubilee years begin on the 10th day of Tishri in the 49th sabbath year in a seven-sabbath cycle.	c. 44 BCE Julius Caesar's Decree to Hyrcanus II	43 BCE Sabbath Year, street and wall rebuilt

The Seventieth Week (the Pentecost in 28 CE)

Between Pentecost of 27 CE and Pentecost of 28 CE, John the Baptist began his ministry of introducing the new covenant to the Jewish people; Jesus was baptized in the Jordan River by John, tempted for forty days and nights in the wilderness, and began his public ministry in Judea. The prophecy of the 70 Weeks ended on Pentecost in 28 CE.	28 CE 70th Pentecost JUBILEE
